OUTING INFO

LAKE MEAD | OCTOBER 25-27, 2019

Outing Info

Outing fee is $50 per person. This covers meals and contributes to boat rental and fuel. Boat costs will be subsidized from greenery profits. You will also need money for road meals on Friday and Sunday.

Campsite

This trip is primitive camping with the campsite starting somewhere above the shoreline. All people and gear will be transported to the island by boat. To minimize equipment, one group menu will be offered.

Location

Lake Mead Marina
490 Horsepower Cove,
Boulder City, NV 89005

Entrance fee is $25. per vehicle, National Park passes are accepted.

Each driver will set departure time and location on Friday to arrive at the marina between 6pm and midnight. Scouts should expect to arrive back in Claremont at approximately 8pm, depending on traffic.

Lake Mead National Recreation Area

The tradition continues! We will camp on a beach on an island in the middle of Lake Mead. Learn to waterski, take an inner tube ride, play in the water and explore the island. September and October are the best times to visit Mead when the air and water temperatures are warm. Register and pay online no later than Friday, Oct 18.

"We have an unknown distance yet to run, an unknown river to explore."
John Wesley Powell

Equipment

Since all gear will be transported to the island by boat, soft duffel bags are best for packing. Everyone needs shoes that can be worn in the water. Do not bring items that cannot get wet. Glass containers are not permitted on Lake Mead beaches.
